Numb. 9317.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 3, to Tuesday November 6, 1753.

Constantinople, October 1.

BY Letters from Bassora, arrived at Aleppo the 7th of September, we have Advice that the Dutch Factory are retired from thence to Bashire, but on what Account is not known; that Azad Khan has defeated Cherim Khan near Hamadan, and obliged him to retire to his Castle of Biri Calhasi, so that the Former has invested Hamadan with an Army of about 10,000 Men.

Lisbon, Sept. 15. On Tuesday last Don Louis-Antoine de Brito y Lemos, whom the King lately appointed Governor of Paraiba in the Brazils, took the usual Oaths, from the Hands of his Majesty, to qualify himself for that important Post, and on the Friday following he sailed from hence, in order to take Possession of that Government. The same Day the Fleet, bound for Fernambuco, consisting of thirteen Merchantmen, sailed from hence under Convoy of a Man of War named the Nostra Signora de Nazareth, commanded by Captain Don Jean de Melo.

Moscow, Oct. 6. We are informed by an Express from Constantinople, that the Grand Signior continues in his Resolution of living in Friendship with the Christian Powers.

Petersbourg, Oct. 8. They are at Work with great Diligence, not only in repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of this City, and in making good the Damages done some Months ago by the Overflowings of the River Neva; but likewise in erecting some new Works, in order to prevent the like Accidents for the Future. By Letters from our Missionaries in the Governments of Casan and Orenbourg, we are informed, that they have baptized near 5000 Mahometan, and other Idolaters, whom they had converted to the Greek Religion, from the 1st of January to the 30th of June last. They write from Moscow, that M. Jeffremow, Atteman or Captain General of the Don Cossacks, had sollicited and obtained the Empress's Leave to resign that Employment on Account of his great Age; and that her Imperial Majesty, in Consideration of his faithful Services, had thereupon raised him to the Rank of Major General, and appointed his Son to succeed him in the Post of Atteman or Captain General of the Don Cossacks.

Madrid, Oct. 9. The Court has received Advice, that on the 26th of last Month, the St. Ignace de Loyola, entred the Bay of Cadiz from the South-Sea, having on Board, as well on the King's Account, as for that of the Merchants, 319157 Pieces of Eight, and 327138 Pistoles, besides a large Quantity of wrought Plate, and a very rich Cargo of Merchandize; and that, on the 27th past and 1st Instant, two Register Ships arrived, viz. the Notre Dame du Pilier, and the Notre Dame du Rosaire, one at the Port of St. Lucar, and the other at Cadiz, having on Board 124589 Pieces of Eight, besides wrought Plate, and very valuable Cargoes of Merchandize.

Genoa, Oct. 12. We are informed by the Master of a French Tartane, which came lately into this Port from the Coast of Barbary, that several Corsairs were arming, by Order of the Dey and Regency of Tunis, to cruize on the Ships of the Christian Powers.

Parma, Oct. 15. The Infant Duke our Sovereign having received Advice, that the Princess his Spouse set out on the 26th of last Month from Versailles, on her Return to this Country, is preparing to meet her on the Frontiers; for which Purpose his Serene Highness has already named the Nobility and Gentry of both Sexes, who are to attend him in this Journey.

Turin, Oct. 17. The Marquis d'Ormea, who is in Garrison with his Regiment in Alexandria, has had Orders from hence to receive and compliment her Royal Highness the Dutchess of Parma on her Entrance into his Sardinian Majesty's Dominions, and to attend her her Royal Highneſs in her Paſſage through them. She is expected at Genoa the 19th, and will ſtay there only two or three Days. Laſt Sunday the Neapolitan Ambaſſador had his Audience of Leave, and the uſual Preſent of his Sardinian Majeſty's Picture. The Affairs of Corſica are in a more embroiled Situation than ever. The Malecontents begin to deſtroy each other; Gaffori, the Chief of the Rebels, having been aſſaſſinated by his own People. The Baron Blonay ſet out Yeſterday on his Embaſſy to Madrid.

Copenhagen, Oct. 19. The King has raiſed M. de Thurah to the Rank of Major General; and M. de Kroge, Colonel of the Regiment of Weſter-Lehn, is appointed Governor of the Fortreſs of Frederichſtadt in Norway, in the Room of Lieutenant General Reichau, deceaſed. Baron Gyldencrone, Counſellor of Conferences, and Knight of the Order of Dannebrog, died here on Saturday laſt, in the 50th Year of his Age. Lieutenant Colonel Longueville, who was ſome Time ſince arreſted here, on his Return from Morocco, is ſet at Liberty.

Prague, Oct. 19. Orders having been given, by her Imperial Majeſty, for compleating the ſeveral Regiments quartered in the different Circles of this Kingdom, they have accordingly begun to raiſe Recruits for that Purpoſe.

Vienna, Oct. 20. This Court has entered into a Convention with that of Bavaria, with Relation to the Standard of the Money in their reſpective Dominions. The Viſcount d'Aubeterre, Miniſter from France, arrived here the Night before laſt. On Monday laſt, being the Feaſt of St. Thereſa, whoſe Name the Empreſs bears, the ſame was celebrated at Schonbrun with the uſual Solemnity. In the Morning their Imperial Majeſties received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters on that Occaſion. At Noon their Imperial Majeſties, the Archdukes and Archdutcheſſes, with the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain, and the Pope's Nuncio, aſſiſted at High Maſs, and Te Deum, in the Royal Chapel; after which they dined in Publick; and at Night they honoured a new Italian Opera with their Preſence. Her Imperial Majeſty hath at length nominated the Perſons for the four Profeſſorſhips of Law, ſhe ſome Time ſince declared ſhould be added to the Univerſity of this City, for the Support of whom ſhe has ſettled an annual Income, viz. Dr. Rieger, to be Profeſſor of Common Law. Dr. Tzon to be firſt, and M. Rettenhauſen, to be ſecond Profeſſor of Civil Law; and an Italian, whoſe Name is not as yet publickly known, to be Profeſſor of Canon Law. We are informed by our laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, that one of the Under-Dragomans of the Porte, had been lately ſtrangled there, for having communicated the Contents of a Paper, delivered by a certain Foreign Envoy to the Grand Vizier, relating, as 'tis ſaid, to the Affairs in the North, to the Miniſter of another Foreign Power.

Cobourg, Oct. 20. Yeſterday Morning the Spouſe of our Hereditary Prince was ſafely delivered of a Princeſs, which joyful News was immediately ſent by Expreſs to the Duke and Dutcheſs our Sovereigns at Rodah, who came here in the Afternoon to aſſiſt at the Baptiſm, which was performed laſt Night in the Chapel of the Court, and the young Princeſs named Caroline-Henriette-Amelie.

Dreſden, Oct. 21. This Court has agreed to a Cartel, for the reciprocal Exchange of Deſerters, with the Court of Brandebourg-Culmbach, the Contents whereof are ordered to be publiſhed at the Head of every Regiment of the Troops of this Electorate. On Monday laſt a Fire broke out at Oederan, a ſmall Town near the Miſnean Mountains, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that upwards of ſixty Houſes were reduced to Aſhes, and five or ſix Perſons periſhed in the Flames.

Brill, Oct. 30. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, having been pleaſed to recommend M. Arnould Gallas, to be firſt Burgomaſter of this Town, in the Room of the late M. Molewater, he was accordingly appointed Yeſterday, by our Regency, to fill up that important Poſt.

Hague, Nov. 1. Yeſterday the States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland opened their Aſſembly, and to Day continued their Deliberations. This Morning an Advertiſement was ſtuck up, in the uſual publick Places, offering a Reward of One Hundred Ducatoons for diſcovering the Author or Authors of the Tumult that happened here on the 27th paſt at Night, when great Diſorders were committed, and many of the Windows broke in ſeveral of our Streets.

Admiralty Office, November 5, 1753.

PUrſuant to an Act paſſed the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, This is to give Notice to the Perſons intereſted or concerned therein, That a Dogger called the St. Johannes, of about 80 Tuns Burthen, belonging to Mr. Lars Kamp, Merchant, of Marſtand in Sweden, whereof Anders Pehrſon Chriſtman was Maſter, laden with Brandy, Wine, and other Goods at Cette, conſigned to Mr. Piere Samuel Bagge and Mr. Carl Habiche, Merchants at Gottenburgh, and the ſaid Mr. Kamp at Marſtand, being forced by Streſs of Weather into Briſtol Channel, came to an Anchor at the Entrance of the Port of Padſtow about Ten o'Clock in the Morning of
